

JUDGE PARKER GIVES FACTS CONNECTED WITH "GOLD TELEGRAM"

Erroneous Version Published Recently Causes Presidential Candidate of 1904 to Relate True Story of Famous Telegram—Surrounding Circumstances Described by Messrs. McCausland and Newcomb.

In its issue of July 3, The Fourth Estate, a New York paper, printed what purported to be the true story of Judge Parker's famous "gold telegram." This account was reprinted in The Freeman, thus calling it to the attention of Judge Parker who thereupon prepared and forwarded to The Fourth Estate his version of the affair accompanied by that of Arthur McCausland and Alvin S. Newcomb. The last issue of The Fourth Estate printed Judge Parker's statement, but with such glaring errors that The Freeman at once asked Judge Parker to supply, for publication, in this paper, a correct copy of his communication to The Fourth Estate and also a copy of the statement by Messrs. McCausland and Newcomb, which The Fourth Estate did not print, but which is even more full and interesting than that made by Judge Parker. The two statements follow:

Judge Parker's Statement.

Through the Kingston Freeman my attention is called to an article in The Fourth Estate by Frank W. Noxon, which if unchallenged will to some extent falsify the history of what has been termed for more than sixteen years my "Gold Telegram" of 1904. I assume that the article was written in the belief that the facts were as stated and yet it would seem that the author of the telegram should have been interviewed before attempting to credit a total stranger to the transaction with having prompted the action taken. Mr. Noxon's informant could not advise that I did not send the telegram for the convention received and sent me a reply, nor as it is to say that someone from St. Louis telegraphed me on the subject before sending, for it is well known among the reporters stationed at Rosemont that I had suggested one of them that I had asked Colonel Robert C. Clowry, president of the Western Union to secure all telegrams passing through the New York stations to or from me and that my request was granted. The claim now put forth after 16 years that Mr. Pulitzer gave me the idea is wholly false. Neither he nor any other person either directly or indirectly suggested to me the action I took.

Mr. Noxon's story in "The Fourth Estate" is that Mr. Pulitzer said to his chief editorial writer, Mr. Merrill, on June 28: "Write an editorial and say Judge Parker should send a telegram to the convention that if they do not adopt a gold plank he will not accept the nomination. Have you got it?" Mr. Noxon's further statement may be summarized thus: The article was written, published in the "World," sent to Mr. Pulitzer's Post Dispatch, and telegraphed to the "World" reporter at Esopus, who showed it to me at the river side. He did not show me on that day at the river side or elsewhere such an editorial or a copy thereof. Nor could he have produced an editorial to that effect, for Mr. Merrill neither wrote nor caused to be published in the "World" such an editorial. Since reading Mr. Noxon's article in "The Fourth Estate," I have examined in the public library the only "World" editorial of July 9th bearing on that subject. It does not recommend that Judge Parker send a telegram to the convention in effect threatening that if it does not accept a gold plank he will not accept the nomination. It would have been a very stupid suggestion to make and unworthy of a man of Mr. Pulitzer's ability, and it goes without saying to my mind that he never made it. But that as it may, such an editorial was not published in the "World" of July 9th—one was published about four-fifths of a column in length in which it was said: "At its session today the convention can by a majority vote adopt the monetary plank reported by the sub committee and direct that it be made part of the platform. Ten words from Judge Parker to the chairman of the New York delegation (Senator Hill) would insure the adoption of a resolution that will make the platform safe and sane."

That Senator Hill after his wonderful struggle with Bryan over the money plank lasting nearly 18 hours could have changed the platform to which he had already agreed and the convention later approved, never occurred to me, and every man of sense and common sense knows it was not possible. Prior to the convention I expressed that there was no longer any chance of my being elected, and I expected no controversy on the subject, but the platform committee of the 9th coupled with the action in some of them that this evening made the money standard an issue again seemed to me to require that I take a position on the subject. I knew that the subject should be made known to the convention. My neighbors and all my associates knew my views, but the convention had not been held, so it was reported. I have already decided that I will not take the convention and to myself that the members should be informed by me of the attitude I should take if elected and under such circumstances as would enable the convention to nominate someone who would prefer to do so after hearing of my views. Hence I prepared at my desk, without aid or suggestion of any kind from any source either directly or indirectly and in the presence of two friends, who were in my house and helping me, Mr. Arthur McCausland, my secretary and now one of my partners, and Mr. Alvin S. Newcomb, then and now the assistant state reporter—the Gold Telegram and read it to them. It read as follows:

"Honorable William F. Sheehan, Hotel Jefferson, St. Louis, Missouri. I regard the gold standard as firmly and irrevocably established and shall act accordingly if the action of the convention today shall be ratified by the people. As the platform is silent on the subject my view should be made known to the convention, and if it prove to be unsatisfactory to the majority I request you to decline the nomination for me at once so that another may be nominated before adjournment."

ALVIN S. PARKER.

I Submit Below and in Addition to the foregoing a statement of Mr. McCausland and Mr. Newcomb covering certain details erroneously stated by Mr. Noxon.

ALVIN S. PARKER.

McCausland and Newcomb Story. Mr. Noxon says in the article above considered by Judge Parker that "The World reporter at Esopus laid before Judge Parker early in the morning at the river side, where before breakfast the candidate to be took a swim followed by a canter. He carried the editorial with him on his ride, stopped on his way home at the little station and filed the celebrated 'Gold Telegram' which resulted in a supplementary gold standard resolution by the convention and has kept soft money out of party politics ever since."

But the World reporter did not meet Judge Parker at the river side with an editorial or otherwise. We were with the reporters most of the night in the telephone room waiting for the news of the nomination. Early in the morning, as was his custom, the Judge went out of the rear of the house to the river, had his swim, and was within a very few feet of the house when the news of his nomination came. He went out with the reporters and the first man to greet and congratulate the nominee was Frank H. Simonds, the historian, then a representative of the "Tribune." He was the only reporter who did more than tender congratulations for the Judge was hurrying to rid himself of his wet bathing suit. Before he had dressed all of the New York afternoon newspapers of the day before and the morning papers of July ninth came and we told him something of the great platform struggle of the day before over the money question and of the opinions expressed that this blunder would make the gold standard an issue again. He rapidly read the story of the great debate in the Hill-Bryan—account of the compromise reported by the committee consisting of Senator Williams, Hill and Bryan, and its subsequent adoption, and the impressions of the skilled writers who represented the great New York papers. Then he mounted his horse for a ride over the hills to think it out. When he returned he strode to his desk with riding clothes on, took up a pad and wrote the telegram to Governor Sheehan which he quotes above, read it to us, and then asked our opinion of it. It had not occurred to either of us that there was anything he could do and he made such a strong presentation of his duty to the convention and the people even though the nomination might, through the sudden anger of the delegates be taken from him, as to lead us, his devoted friends, to enthusiastically concur. Then he asked McCausland to make a very careful copy, which was done and compared. He asked Newcomb to take to the telephone office and to take every precaution to prevent a discovery of its sending prior to its reading in the convention. Newcomb complied with his wish, staying with the operator until it was on the wire and the telegram carefully filed away. It follows that the Judge did not "stop at the little station and file the celebrated Gold Telegram."

We were warned within a day or so by one of the reporters, whose headquarters for the campaign were at the Gate House, that an effort might be made to take from Judge Parker the credit of his act. Thereupon McCausland, at the Judge's request, wrote in Colonel Clowry, of the Western Union, requesting him to act possession of all telegrams to or from Judge Parker on the convention day. This he promptly did and as it is, but as they wish to recover to be, we were in a position to know that the action taken by Judge Parker was not suggested by him nor did anyone but ourselves know of his action until after the telegram was received by Governor Sheehan at St. Louis and the first knowledge that the rest of the country had of it came from St. Louis. ARTHUR McCausland. ALVIN S. NEWCOMB.

After reading Judge Parker's statement, Mr. Noxon in the Fourth Estate, made the following comment: "The version of the gold telegram story given in my article was that which I had orally from William H.

TELEPHONE CO. WILL ERECT A BIG ADDITION

On West O'Reilly Street in Rear of Present Building—Company Has Bought Two Adjoining Lots and Is Demolishing One of Buildings.

The New York Telephone Company is planning the building of a big addition to the telephone plant and already a gang of men are busy demolishing the two story frame building in the rear of the plant on West O'Reilly street, which for several years has been used as offices by the company. To make room for the proposed addition the telephone company has bought the two adjoining lots on West O'Reilly street. At the telephone office this morning it was stated that it was true that the company was to build a big addition, but as the plans were prepared by the building committee at the head office of the company, and had not been received in Kingston as yet, no details could be given as to the size of the extension or what purpose it would be placed.

The two story frame building on the lot adjoining the telephone company building was formerly a residence, but when the telephone company became cramped for room it was taken over, and after alterations were made, used for office purposes. On the lot next to that stands a brick residence. The proposed addition will overlap onto that plot of ground but it will not be necessary to demolish the brick residence which will be left standing and will likely be rented to tenants for residential purposes by the telephone company. As soon as further details are received regarding the proposed new addition they will be made public through The Freeman.

WOULD CRUSH REDS.

Pilsudski Urges His Government to Continue War.

London, Sept. 1.—General Pilsudski, the Polish commander in chief, is urging the Polish government to continue the war against the reds "until soviet Russia is crushed," according to the following Central News dispatch from Warsaw today: "General Pilsudski holds the opinion that it is impossible to stop the Polish offensive on the ethnological lines advocated by the allies and the United States. He is quoted as saying that the war ought to be continued until the enemy is crushed, but that a decisive decision should be reached."

Long, of Little Falls, was elected a member of the board of governors for three years. The association voted to meet next year at Endicott, N. Y.

Another French Fashion.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Paris, Sept. 1.—Fashionable French women are now carrying dolls in their arms instead of lap dogs.

Merrill, who spoke to me, I think, without witnesses, and has been some years dead. The gist of Judge Parker's exception is that he was not consciously influenced in sending the telegram to the "World" editorial from which he now quotes. "The editorial said: 'Ten words from Judge Parker... would insure the adoption of a resolution that will make the platform safe and sane.' Judge Parker sent the telegram and the resolution was adopted. He said he acted under no suggestion of any kind from any source either directly or indirectly. 'Nobody will call in question the thoroughness of Judge Parker's conviction that the World editorial did not influence him. Everybody will accept at once his correction of Mr. Merrill's detail about the delivery of the editorial by telegram to the Judge through a World reporter. There still remains the question whether the publication of such an editorial (and possibly similar utterances by others) could have occurred without affecting the general atmosphere in which the Judge operated. He evidently feels that what was quoted from Mr. Merrill throws a reflection upon his intellectual independence, and it is therefore all the more agreeable to have him phrase his dissent in language so artless and cordial. 'Two gentlemen of the type which we call 'old fashioned,' neither William H. Merrill nor Alvin S. Parker would willingly do anyone an injustice or knowingly wound any one's feelings. I regret having wounded Judge Parker's."

PATROLMEN WELCOMED BY MAYOR AS CONVENTION OPENS AT ELKS' CLUB

Delegates Go To Keeney's Tonight—Business Session Tomorrow and Auto Ride Around Reservoir—Fifty In Attendance.

The eighteenth annual convention of the State Patrolmen's Association convened this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Elks' Club on Fair street with about fifty delegates present. President Andrew W. Walker of the Kingston Patrolmen's Association, introduced Mayor Canfield who delivered the address of welcome. The response was made by President Thomas P. Dolan of Albany. This evening the delegates will be entertained at Keeney's Theater. The convention closes Thursday, and following the business session the delegates will be entertained at a banquet at Pessner's grill on Railroad avenue.

In expressing the greeting of welcome of the city, Mayor Canfield paid a tribute to the local police department and told the delegates present that the citizens of the city prided themselves in having an efficient and splendid force equal to any. The mayor told how the first real police force of modern sense was the constabulary system in Ireland in 1787. He referred to the different police conditions in various countries and as between different cities of the same country. The size of the city, the character of the industries, the economic conditions, the nationalities of the people and national traits and conditions materially affect the police problem in different cities. While the same purpose of preservation of order, security of personal safety of property underlies every police force, the task is often entirely different in different places.

Various statistics and figures were given by the mayor to show the sharp contrast in police work. In London with about seven million people and in Paris with about three million, it is estimated that only two hundred thousand were born outside the respective countries in which the cities are situated. In Berlin and Vienna and some other countries in continental Europe the percentage is much less. In New York and Buffalo and some other cities in our country the percentage of foreign born is much greater. The mayor told some interesting facts concerning the police departments of different countries. In London and other cities the patrolmen are called constables and are selected mostly from places away from the city as it is not desired to have local ties and connections.

In England they recruit amongst the farming districts just as they do in our country for the army and the navy. In continental Europe they are usually taken from the army. In most of the countries they must have served from three to nine years in the army. "The police work has taken on new aspects during the last decade," said the mayor. "The pursuit of criminals and maintenance of order have given way to a great extent to the regulation of traffic, which has become in some cities the one most important police work."

In closing the mayor welcomed the patrolmen and wished them successful results in their discussions and deliberations.

U. S. NOTE ANSWERED.

Great Britain Replies to Mesopotamia Oil Protest.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, Sept. 1.—The United States has objected to the reported agreement between Great Britain and France for the division of the oil products of Mesopotamia, on grounds that such an agreement is in violation of the general principle under which mandates were given by the peace conference. It was learned today.

The United States addressed a formal note to Great Britain on the proposed agreement, which would restrict the huge oil output of Mesopotamia to France and Great Britain and an answer has been received here. There will be further formal exchange on the subject. The British government's reply will be made public as soon as the United States has answered the note from Great Britain.

BODY GUARD FOR LLOYD-GEORGE

Other British Officials and Buildings To Be Closely Watched—Tense Feeling Created By Sinn Fein Threats.

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, Sept. 1.—As Terence Mac Swiney, lord mayor of Cork, hovered on the borderland of death in Brixton jail today Scotland Yard entered into intense activities to meet the menace of assassination which hangs over Premier Lloyd George and other members of the cabinet. Mac Swiney still lives, thanks to his wonderful vitality, but it was declared that his death may come at any minute. A bulletin issued at 11 o'clock bore the brief announcement: "Condition unchanged."

Officials of Scotland Yard are going through their most anxious period in the history of England. It is presumed Lloyd George takes seriously the threats against his life for his refusal to liberate Lord Mayor Mac Swiney and is overlooking no precaution in his vacation retreat at Lucerne. A special body guard has been sent to Switzerland to protect the premier. The uniformed police, detectives and secret service agents are cooperating to protect the lives of members of the government and save government property from destruction.

Double guards have been thrown around the Whitehall district where the government buildings are located. Members of the cabinet who are in the country on vacations have been warned to exercise caution. Detectives have been designated to guard them on their return to London.

Sinn Fein sympathizers suspected of violent intentions have been "checked" and are constantly shadowed by the most expert detectives in London. Even the children in the families of cabinet members are being guarded against attempted kidnapping.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, who went to Lucerne to consult with the premier, was flanked by secret government agents throughout the trip to protect his life.

A dispatch from Geneva says that Albert Courvaux, who was arrested for sending a death threat to Premier Lloyd George in a telegram, told the court he did not intend to kill the premier, but only to frighten him into releasing Mac Swiney.

30,000 HARD COAL MINERS STRIKE

By Telegram to The Freeman. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 1.—An unauthorized tie up of the anthracite coal industry got under way today when 3,000 mine workers failed to report for work in various sections. The Wyoming division of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company was most seriously crippled, the Stanton Colliery being completely tied up and other collieries forced to operate with 50 per cent of their normal working forces. The Susquehanna Collieries Company was also hard hit, seven collieries in number 9 district being in idleness. The Red Ash Coal Company was crippled and reports from the upper end of district number 1 are to the effect that coal companies are working with a greatly depleted force.

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 1.—The anthracite miners' strike, which began yesterday in Leasford and Williamsport districts, spread to this district today. A large number of miners joined the strikers, who declare the entire Schuylkill district will be idle when the insurgent strike call is made.

Twenty-five thousand miners in the Schuylkill region joined the ranks of the strikers today and declared they will remain away from the mines until President Wilson accepts the minority report of Neal Ferry, of the anthracite wage commission, which gives them a much larger increase than the majority report does.

Miners still at work declare they will go out tomorrow, thus tying up this region completely.

Commendation College Buildings.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, Sept. 1.—Commissioner W. B. Colver, of the federal trade commission, today submitted his resignation to President Wilson. He gave as his reason that he desired to return to private business. No action has yet been taken by the president on the resignation.

SAGE WARNS OF GROWING TAXES

Shows How State Expenses Have Grown Through Discovery of New Ways To Spend Money—Immutability of Natural Laws Cannot Be Repealed By Legislation.

Senator Henry M. Sage of Albany, who was the guest of the Rotary Club at its noon luncheon today, made a commonsense address that was listened to with close attention. The speaker was introduced by Senator Walton, who was also a guest of the Rotarians.

Senator Sage said it was difficult in a presidential year to avoid politics, but he would endeavor to do so. Without going into tedious statistics, the speaker called attention to the fact that 30 years ago the total expenditures of the state were $12,000,000 in one year while expenditures the present year are $141,000,000. Thirty years ago the state government was just a government. Since that time the people have awakened to other functions of government. We are spending $14,000,000 in the care of the 36,000 insane. The barge canal has cost $140,000,000 and will cost $30,000,000 more. State roads cost $1,000 per mile per year to maintain, which amounts to $9,000,000 each year. If we build more state roads we will pay more millions each year to maintain them. We have labor laws and health laws until the question is: Have we gone too far?

Two years ago we narrowly escaped a health insurance law that would have cost the state $22,000,000 a year. We are planning to care for unattended illness at a cost of $2,000,000 a year. There is agitation and pressure for more laws and for the repeal of good laws that do not work perfectly. If we legislate for a class—any class, poor or rich—at the expense of the whole people we are on the wrong road. If legislation is based on the idea that it is for the good of all it is on the right road. We cannot repeal immutable natural laws by legislation. Last winter, under pressure, the legislature passed laws seeking to prevent rent profiteering, which will do nothing but harm. The way to cure a shortage in housing is to build more houses and we cannot have that done by stopping the revenue of the owner.

We must take care that we do not support movements for new laws that cost money and are not necessary. If we do not, our state expenses will be doubled and trebled again and where are we to obtain the means to meet them?

TENDERLOIN SEES BIGGEST DRY RAID

By Telegram to The Freeman. New York, Sept. 1.—One hundred and fifty government agents swooped down upon New York's "tenderloin" district shortly before noon today and launched the largest and most thoroughly organized raid on "boozers" reports that Gotham has known since the country went dry. Several arrests already have been made and by afternoon, it is predicted, scores of dispensers of the illicit cup will find themselves behind the kind of bars from whence only heavy bail can purchase them freedom. Under the direction of Deputy Quigley, attached to the staff of Prohibition Enforcement Agent James Sherrin, the veritable army of raiding agents descended upon the tenderloin resorts in huge motor trucks. They were armed with search warrants entitling them to search every nook and cranny of every cellar and attic and had instructions to break down doors wherever the proprietors refused to let them in.

Boys Drugged.

E. E. Dyer has resigned as Kingston agent for John Wamsutter. He will be succeeded by William S. Johnson of 41 Washington street.

The third annual Farm and Home Bureau picnic held today at W. A. Warren's farm at Old Hurley brought out one of the largest crowds ever assembled in Ulster county. From early morning automobiles loaded with picnickers followed the green signs to Wynkoop Farms where the picnic was held. Long before noon time there were four long lines of cars parked on the big field overlooking the meadows where later in the day the tractor plowing exhibition was held. Automobile parties arrived in a steady stream keeping the two state troopers busy directing them to the parking grounds which had been reserved for the purpose. Beside being an old fashioned picnic where neighbors and friends from all over the county meet and visit, there were real farmers' exhibits. The tractor demonstration which was scheduled to take place at 10 o'clock, farmer's time, however, was delayed owing to the late arrival of the machinery at the grounds and the time consumed in placing the tractors and machinery in order. Plots of grounds of equal size had previously been laid out on the big flat meadow for the plowing contest.

Clustered about the big tent of the Home Bureau were sandwiches, hot dogs, coffee, fruit and ice cream were on sale, were the farm implement exhibits. The Canfield Supply Company of Kingston had a very attractive exhibit of modern farm machinery, including feed grinders, corn shellers, power pumps and different kinds of cow stanchions. A booth where the Primrose cream separator was demonstrated attracted great attention. Delco lights for farm buildings and the Matthews electric light system also were shown. A big two ton Traffic truck, shown by William P. Giam, the local agent attracted considerable attention coming on the field with a load of machinery for the Delco light exhibit.

Of special interest to the women who came to the picnic was the tent occupied by the Home Bureau exhibits where various kinds of canned vegetables, home made preserves were shown. Here also was shown clothing and military exhibits of the Home Bureau showing the work which has been done during the past season among the women of the county.

The biggest attraction on the grounds at about the noon hour was "Cowslip Inn." Here it was possible to get milk in all of its forms from the finest sweet milk to the best buttermilk produced by Ulster county farmers.

One of the biggest attractions on the grounds was a small International 8-16 horse tractor which was entered in the plowing demonstration, drawing two plows. Beside the International there was also a Fordson tractor on exhibition and others which arrived later at the grounds. In the afternoon the community sing, led by Mr. Eppes of Accord, was one of the attractions of the day and certainly went a long way toward keeping the big crowd entertained.

By noon time there were at least 400 automobiles parked on the grounds and a constant stream of new arrivals kept the traffic officers busy. Beside the hundreds who came early and brought along their lunch, there were still more who came in the afternoon to hear the speaking by Senator Sage and the talk by B. M. Kilpatrick, treasurer of the Dairy-men's League.

During the afternoon there were demonstrations of various kinds of farm machinery by local agents and later the big ball game between the Ulster county farmers' team and the Orange county team.

LITTLE CHANGE IN BROOKLYN STRIKE

By Telegram to The Freeman. New York, Sept. 1.—Striking employees of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company today voted in mass meeting not to return to work while arrangements are being made to settle their differences with the company. The men were in session behind closed doors from 10 o'clock until almost 1 o'clock.

Twenty cars which left the barns in Flatbush today had heavy screens protecting the windows, while police rode on the platforms. The early morning cars carried few passengers. It was feared strikers would attack these cars.

Delayed and wavy train service was slightly improved today, but the majority of Brooklynites were still delayed in reaching their work, with thousands of them spending an angry transportation.

After the "business" cars and the "commuter" cars, the "night" cars, which were delayed by strikers last night, were delayed today to be delayed. Strikers have been holding at several points, many cars have been broken.

PURE FABRIC BILL MUCH NEEDED

Wool Growers Say That Manufacturers Use Shoddy in Preference to Pure Wool—Hags From Germany and Britain Go Into American Clothes While Sheep Industry Here is Threatened.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Chicago, Sept. 1.—That there are more than 4,000,000,000 pounds of virgin (new) wool in the world's storehouses, or soon will be, awaiting manufacture, that the textile mills of the United States used 113,000,000 fewer pounds of virgin wool last year than in 1918 and that the drop will be greater this year were some of the statements Alexander Walker made today in his annual address as president of the National Sheep and Wool Bureau of America, whose headquarters is at No. 23 East Jackson Boulevard.
Today's conference was the most important annual meeting in the history of the bureau. The National Sheep and Wool Bureau of America is an organization of firms and organizations interested in the sheep and wool industry in every part of the United States. For a year it has been engaged in getting the people of the country together behind the French-Capper Truth in Fabric bill, which was left in the hands of the interstate and foreign commerce committee of both branches of congress at adjournment. If enacted, the bill would compel textile manufacturers to stamp every yard of their cloth entering interstate commerce with its content of virgin wool and of wool substitutes, the chief of which is shoddy—old rags, re-worked and in some cases as often as eight times. Textile manufacturers consider the measure as revolutionary as the pure food law, which was fought by the interests for twenty-six years.

"If the French-Capper Truth in Fabric bill is not passed quickly so as to open the eyes of the public to the fact that the textile manufacturers are meeting their demand for virgin wool with re-worked rags," said Byron Wilson, secretary of the Wyoming Wool Growers' Association, one of the best informed wool men west of the Mississippi river, "there will soon be no wool grown in the United States to supply their demand and no sheep for food purposes either. Sheep men cannot continue to grow sheep, if the textile manufacturers will not buy their wool at a living profit."
His remarks were strongly seconded by J. F. Walker, president of the Fleece Wool States' Association and chairman of the wool committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation. He continued:
"I doubt if the manufacturers are allowing the people of the United States three pounds of virgin wool per capita this year. They need twelve pounds per capita. I remember a short time ago visiting a certain woolen mill. There wasn't a pound of virgin wool on the premises—nothing but shoddy. They were turning out woolen blankets of straight shoddy, which should not have retailed for more than $15 a pair. When I returned to Chicago I found these blankets selling at the leading department store for $45 a pair. A competitor had a special sale of the 'Sheddies' at $39.50 a pair."

George M. Wright, executive commissioner of the Ohio Sheep and Wool Growers' Association, gave it as his opinion that the sheep industry of America could only be saved by the producers and the consumers getting together. He said:
"The people want virgin wool cloth and they receive re-worked rag cloth from the textile manufacturers in its stead. The textile manufacturers can make more money by using re-worked rags in their 'all wool' cloth than they could by buying virgin wool from the sheep men at a fair price and using that. I saw an announcement the other day that a steamer had arrived with 1,700 tons of rags from Antwerp and $25 boxes of rags and cuttings from Germany for the American shoddy mills. I wonder how our people would feel, if they knew that they were being clothed in re-worked German rags?"
President Walker said in his address that the unsold British government's Colonial wools amount to 929,777,280 pounds and the stored wool in this country, to 431,031,547 pounds. Three amounts are exclusive of the 1920 clip, which the British government experts estimate at 2,700,000,000 pounds. The American spring clip has amounted to about 285,000,000 pounds. These figures do not include reserve supplies in various parts of the world, such as South Africa and South America. He pointed out that, though wool is accumulating in the storehouses, the world produces less than a third of the virgin wool it needs annually. He estimated that the wool growers of the United States lost $75,000,000 in the drop of 25 cents a pound in the price of raw wool early this summer.

He Didn't Ask Much.

Frisbey is one of the politest of men. One day he was cycling along a broad road, when he espied a lady ahead, also cycling, who was wide of figure and uncertain as to steering. Fearing an accident, he rang his bell. The lady promptly wobbled frantically and eventually dismounted with more speed than grace. Frisbey hurried to her assistance, to be met with a spiteful remark: "Do you want all the road?"
"No, madam," replied Frisbey, courteously, "I abominate selfishness. I was simply desirous of being permitted to make use of the small portion which you were not using."—Houston Post.

MILK TWO CENTS A QUART HIGHER

The retail price of milk advanced in Kingston today two cents a quart and one cent a pint, and is now selling at seven cents a quart. The fact that the price of milk would be advanced the first of the month was announced in The Freeman about two weeks ago. The milk dealers claim that there still continues a serious shortage in the production of milk in this locality, and which will probably continue until next spring. They also call attention to the advance in the price of milk bottles. The dealers promise that if the league price of milk declines the retail price will be reduced accordingly.

Some real facts about COFFEE

Time has dispelled many old illusions. Coal was once condemned as "injurious" and burned openly in the market place as a "public nuisance."
For ten centuries the nations of the earth have enjoyed the benefits of coffee. Yet in this enlightened day coffee is sometimes declared "injurious"—another form of superstition.
Coffee plays its part in the homes of the millions three times a day every day. Coffee helped to win the war. It fed suffering Belgium. In Holland coffee is always ready to serve—and its people are healthy.
You will find in REYNOLDS' RELIANCE a coffee of unsurpassed flavor and aroma. And our scientific process of roasting and grinding makes RELIANCE as healthful as it is delicious.
Remember to ask for RELIANCE. It is always fresh at your grocers—guaranteed to please or your money back. Wm. T. Reynolds & Company, Inc., Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Cheaper Heating But more comfort—how to get it DEMONSTRATION THIS WEEK

The Andes System One Pipe Furnace is the most modern method of heating. It's simple and best because it can be installed in a single day and because it cuts down fuel bills from one-third to one-half. Best of all, it gives that comfortable heat you always wanted. The price ranges according to size from $200 up. See this furnace this week at our demonstration.

General:—F. Beckwith installed one of our Andes One Pipe Furnaces No. 210 in my house of six rooms and bath. It has done the work of two stoves and we are well pleased with it. Yours truly, FRANK VALENT, Rhinebeck, N. Y.

Our guarantee
If your Andes One Pipe Furnace is not perfectly satisfactory, it will be taken out and the full purchase price refunded.

Many a heating system is worse than a hole in your money pocket, because it makes you pay for heat that you never get. Shovelful after shovelful, ton after ton, you throw the coal into the fire, and yet—the house is never comfortably warm. Heat and money and comfort—all are lost. You sit around uncomfortably, shivering in cold rooms, thinking of the fuel bills you have to pay.

Put there's comfort and money saving to be had
Let us tell you about a heating system that comes like a god-send into your house—fills it full of splendid, comfortable warmth, and cuts down your fuel bills from one-third to one-half. It brings back the cheery comfort of summer sunshine on the bleakest winter days, and saves many a dollar you were shaking through the grate.

We can actually show you how to have better heating for less money; how to have perfect comfort at less cost; how to warm up cold corners and cold halls. And we can show you how the whole thing can be installed and put into working order in just one day.

Demonstration all this week
We are giving the best part of this week to introduce this wonderful money-saving Andes System One Pipe Furnace. We would like to demonstrate it to you. We want to show you how well it is made and how well it is designed.

It represents the most modern method of heating—a method which has entirely revised our ideas of the cost of heating—both first cost and operating cost.

When you see how sensible and how simple this system is, you won't wonder any longer how it can be installed—actually put into use—in just one day nor how it can fill the whole house with comfort.

Your opportunity
Don't miss the opportunity. Let us show you this new Andes System One Pipe Furnace. During this week we are making a special effort to explain clearly and carefully just how it guards your family's health; just how it can be installed at practically no cost in only one day; just how it brings a big, generous amount of extra comfort; just how it saves fuel money every day you use it.

Don't forget that winter is coming again with the same old winter troubles which wreck the usefulness of ordinary heating systems. Don't be caught again. This is your chance to prevent it. We guarantee the Andes, anyway, and just coming in to see it doesn't mean that you have to buy.

FREE
We will give away absolutely free (value $6.00) with every Andes System One Pipe Furnace sold during this special demonstration this week only, an Andes Furnace Clock which automatically opens the drafts and heats up the house just before you get up in the morning.

Backward, turn backward, O Time
 In your flight.
 Give us a maiden with skirts not so tight!
 Give us a girl whose charms, many or few,
 Are not exposed by much peek-a-bo.

Give us a maiden, no matter what age,
 Who won't use the street for a vaudeville stage;
 Give us a girl not so sharply in view,
 Dress her in skirts that the sun won't shine through.

Then give us the dances of days long gone by;
 With plenty of clothes and steps not so high,
 Oust turkey-trot capers and butter-milk glides.

The jumpy-gurdy twist and the wiggly-tail slide;
 Then let us feast our tired optics once more
 On a genuine woman as sweet as of yore.

HUGE CAMPAIGN FUNDS DOOMED

Congressmen Recognize Something Will Have to Be Done Next Session To Change System Whereby 50 Per Cent of Money Contributed Is Wasted or Provided Job For Professional Managers—On.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
 Washington, Sept. 1.—The startling revelations of the Kearyon committee in pre-convention days, followed by the sensational charges and counter charges that "colossal funds" are now being raised by both big parties, mark the spectacular wind up of a political system henceforth doomed, senators and congressmen here today stated with grim nods of the head.

One of the first laws to be passed by the new congress, whether that congress be controlled by Democrats or Republicans, it was predicted almost unanimously, will be a law to prevent contributions from federal offices, under federal control, and limit expenditures where there can be no possible suspicion of corrupt practices. At the time the warning was uttered, party headquarters with extravagant rentals, vast retinues of salaried political lieutenants, and their expensive appointments to the present system, are soon to be relegated to the limbo of things that used to be.

"There should be limits placed on presidential campaign expenditures in primaries in pre-convention work, and in general elections," Congressman Edward C. Little, Republican, of Kansas, declared today. "For years I have urged such limitations."

"The fact is that 50 per cent of the money raised and expended in presidential campaigns is wasted."

"Tons of printed matter are circulated and not read. Many pay no attention to it. It is a waste of money and labor."

"Money is squandered in a hundred different ways. The limitations should apply to individual expenditures. A man with five dollars advocating an idea or an issue can do no harm. A man with a million dollars to push an idea, or an individual, may prove a corruptor and an evil. It is a case of a boy with a pop gun and a man with a 44 calibre revolver."

"Both of the great political parties should be made to get along with far less money than they have been collecting and spending."

"Expensive political machines have been built up with hangers-on, who make that their sole means of livelihood."

Congressman Scott Ferris, Democrat, of Oklahoma, was equally emphatic in his opinions.

"It would be a wholesome thing," he said, "to curb expenditures in presidential campaigns in some practical way."

Legislation giving authorities complete control over elections, would not pass the house and senate without debate, it was clearly indicated.

"I can not help feeling a little alarm over what seems to be a growing tendency to centralize our government more and more in Washington and take more and more of individual states' prerogatives away from them," Senator William King, Democrat, of Utah, said.

"We are gradually taking away from the states the right to legislate for themselves. We are forcing women suffrage on some states that do not want it and prohibition on other states which object to prohibition, and so on, thus centralizing government here in Washington as Napoleon centralized the government of France in Paris."

"I do not question the right of the federal government exercising control over elections, but I do question the desirability of so doing for the above reason. Leave it to the states."

"I also observe another growing tendency, which is to try to cure all our faults and ills by statute. It can't be done. Publicity is much better. If we tell the people every thing that is going on and why, many of our troubles would fade away of themselves."

"De Tocqueville was right when he said the cure for the evils of democracy is more democracy. Let us have less law and more general knowledge to remedy what ails us. And let us stop trying to run the country from Washington so much and give the states a chance to run their own affairs."

You can hear it in our store

—the phonograph that is featured in Vaudeville's strangest act

Perhaps you've seen it—Signor Friscoe's "Magic" Xylophone Act.

It's the hit of vaudeville's "Big Time."

Signor Friscoe's "magic" is an Official Laboratory Model of the New Edison. We have one exactly like it.

Signor Friscoe's instrument is an exact duplicate of the original Official Laboratory Model, which cost Mr. Edison three million dollars to perfect. Our instrument is also an exact duplicate of this famous three million dollar original. We guarantee it to be able to give the same marvelous RE-CREATIONS of music, which Signor Friscoe's Official Laboratory Model gives in vaudeville.

Come in and test the astonishing realism of this instrument for yourself—in Mr. Edison's Realism Test.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

You've read how the New Edison has proved its perfect realism. Four thousand tests have been given, in which more than 50 different artists compared their art with its RE-CREATIONS by the New Edison. Leading newspapers conceded that there was no difference between the two.

Has any one suggested to you that these comparison tests are "faked"—that the artist imitates the New Edison?

Signor Friscoe's performance makes such an assertion positively ridiculous. Every week, 20,000 people see his hammer ripple over the xylophone keys. Suddenly he holds them aloft—still.

The rippling music continues.

Slowly, the gorgeous curtains of the back-drop part. The audience gasps. The New Edison stands revealed. It has taken up Signor Friscoe's performance, and is now RE-CREATING it alone. The effect of this extraordinary magic can rest upon only one fact: No one can distinguish any difference between Signor Friscoe's performance and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. Signor Friscoe could not possibly imitate the New Edison, because the xylophone can not be made to imitate any other instrument, so as to deceive its hearers.

Signor Friscoe's act is not an Edison enterprise. He has simply been clever enough to use the New Edison for what it is worth. Why don't you?

PRICES

The price of the New Edison has increased less than 15% since 1914. This includes the War Tax.

Mr. Edison has staved off price advances by personally absorbing more than half of the increased cost of manufacture.

Because of the exceptionally high quality of materials and workmanship demanded by the Edison Laboratories, and the continued scarcity of both, it may be necessary to advance prices. But rest assured that this will not occur, unless Mr. Edison is forced to it.

Our Budget Plan—the thrift way of spending—will help you buy now. Let us tell you about it.

STATE HELPING APPLE GROWERS

Commissioner Foster Arranging Storage Room and Transportation Situation in Better Campaign to Stimulate Use of Fruit.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Albany, Sept. 1.—Assurance to the apple growers of the state is contained in a statement made today by Dr. Eugene H. Porter, state commissioner of foods and markets, relative to the prospects of moving the unusually large apple crop of this year. Dr. Porter cautions the growers not to allow rumors regarding shortage of storage space and cars to alarm them and impel them to sacrifice their crop at the low prices now being offered by some buyers.

As to storage space the commissioner has taken up with the representatives of the British government the matter of moving the large quantities of export meat now held in some of the fruit storages and indications are that this space will be made available for the late apples. Investigations made by the agents of the division also indicate that the railroads are making excellent progress in accumulating cars for the crop movement and that transportation conditions will be better than they have been for some time.

In addition, the Division of Foods and Markets begins today a state-wide campaign to stimulate the consumption of apples through the apple shipping season. Newspapers, Chambers of Commerce and consumers' organizations have been enlisted and the net result is bound to be an increase in the quantity of the fruit which can be sold. Also many large chain stores have been induced to buy direct from the producers and to feature special sales of New York state apples. The State College of Agriculture, the New York City Commissioner of Markets, Mr. O'Malley, and the mayors of all cities in the state have been asked to cooperate in the campaign. When the full buying powers of the consumers begins to be felt, as the result of this campaign, it should be possible to move the crop at fair prices to the growers instead of at the disastrous prices now offered.

Many of the chain stores prefer to receive the apples which they will buy in bushel baskets and other packages smaller than the barrel and this feature will materially aid the present difficulty resulting from shortage of barrels. It is imperative, however, that the growers use every effort to maintain a high

The Economy of Using Goodyear Small Car Tires.

So-called bargain tires, made up for sensational sales and offered at ridiculously low prices, do not attract careful buyers.

They are far more concerned with what they get than with what they pay because they know that in the end it is performance and not price that delivers actual tire economy.

The popularity of Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3, 30x3½ and 31x4-inch sizes, is based on the fact that they deliver exceptional mileage at exceedingly low cost.

standard of grading and packing in all their shipments of package fruit. It is only by thus keeping faith with the dealers who will handle the crop and the consumers who will buy it that this whole campaign for increased consumption of New York state apples can be made a success for it hinges entirely upon inducing all who buy the apples to come back again and again for more till the crop is moved.

New York apples are to be advertised this year in a way never before undertaken. The effect of this will be felt in the years which follow, so that good packing and careful grading were never more important than they are this year.

Fitzsimmons Decides He Needs More Preparation.

By Telegram to The Freeman. New York, Sept. 1.—Eddie Fitzsimmons, New York lightweight, today changed his plans regarding the possibility of winning the lightweight championship and asked Tex Rickard, promoter to relieve him of his agreement to fight Benny Leonard at Madison Square Garden this month. Fitzsimmons' manager pleaded that the young scrapper needs more exercises before entering the ring with a man of Leonard's calibre.

Rickard declared today that both Leonard and Fitzsimmons have expressed a dislike for the match. He probably will agree to release Fitzsimmons and select some other fighter for Leonard's opponent.

STORM WAS HEAVY UP THE RIVER

The storm which was light in third city Tuesday afternoon was severe in Greene county and north along the Hudson valley and in other sections. At Catskill there was a furious rain for nearly half an hour. Considerable damage was done in the Catskill section. A large mill owned by Frank McKnight was blown down on his farm, situated just back of Catskill. Fruit trees were uprooted and crops leveled to the ground.
 In Greene county the storm hit hard, beginning about 1:30 and continuing for more than a half hour. Reports from several sections of the county indicate it was the worst storm in years. Heavy rain, and in some places, large hail stones fell in Greene county. Electric lights and power were cut off in Catskill village for more than an hour, while business was almost at a standstill.
 Heavy damage was reported from Durham and Cairo, especially to fruit trees, corn and other crops. Whole fields of corn were leveled, while the fruit was not only blown from the trees, but the trees were torn from the ground, many of them blown for considerable distance. Late last night no report had been received from the higher mountain districts surrounding Catskill, but it is believed the damage was heavy. The storm which hit Catskill in the form of a whirl, came suddenly, and even crops which had been partly harvested were destroyed before they could be removed to a place of safety.

This will be an increase of 50 cents a quarter rental over the present charge. Telephone rates have been raised, beginning today, milk has jumped two cents the quart, coal was given a boost a day or two ago as was the wholesale price of beef, but outside of that everything is all right for the ultimate consumer.

Patton King's Pet a Spider.
 King Christian II of Denmark nicknamed the King of the North, was taken prisoner in 1521 by Christian I, who had been chosen king in his place. In his cell he contracted a friendship with a spider. The prisoners knew the sound of his voice, when he called and one out of his hand. For the spider would to devour the fallen king, of a pleasure, killed the spider.

Not a Goodtime Guard.
 The little girl next door had come over to play with Goldie and, on usual, they were now quarrelling. Andy was pained at leaving her with no return peace and nearly exclaimed: "I don't see why you want to play together when you do nothing but quarrel all day long?" "We don't quarrel all day long, we have hours of peace in between scraps," earnestly corrected Goldie.

English Conspect of Ireland.
 The conquest of Ireland by the English was a gradual process. The first step was taken by Henry II, who is said to have obtained a bull from Pope Adrian IV, authorizing him to take possession of the country. The Pope, however, actually passed the policy of taking land from the Irish chiefs and giving it to English settlers. The first act of the union was passed and proclaimed on January 1, 1801.

BELFAST CASUALTY LIST NUMBERS 26

And Picked Battle. Shooting of Buildings and Evictions of Men. Feinners Continue—2,000 Now Homeless.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Belfast, Sept. 1.—Beneath skies darkened by the smoke of raging conflagrations fighting continued in Belfast today. Five more deaths have occurred, bringing the fatality list up to 26 since last Saturday evening. A civilian was shot to death by a military patrol for violation of the curfew order. Another civilian died of wounds received in yesterday's fighting.
A pitched battle broke out during the morning when Sinn Feinners attacked a train bearing ship workers to the shipyards. Soldiers were rushed to the scene and fired a volley, quelling the fighting.
Many more disorders have broken out despite the heavy troop patrols and there was further looting.
After the fight between the Sinn Feinners and the ship builders two dead men were found upon the ground. It was said they were killed by soldiers who fired upon the fighters.
The strife spread to Southfield, where a Unionist mob attacked the Sinn Feinners, killing a man. The Sinn Feinners fought back and many persons were wounded by revolver shots and flying stones. A number of stores were wrecked.
Belfast, Sept. 1.—A civilian was shot to death by a military patrol early today for violating the curfew order.
Soldiers are patrolling the streets and all persons have been warned to remain indoors during certain hours of the night.
Scores of persons, both men and women, who were wounded in the street fighting, are still under treatment in various hospitals.
It is estimated 7,000 persons are homeless. Joseph Devlin, M. P., is using up Catholic clubs to be used as a shelter for the refugees.
Evictions of Sinn Fein sympathizers are continuing. In several instances vans were set on fire after they had been loaded with furniture for removal.
Business circles are becoming alarmed over the boycott of Belfast by South Ireland. Degoritors from South Ireland are reported to be drawing large sums from Ulster Province banks. The directors are worried over the outlook and fear the continuation of bank deposits will bring the community to the verge of bankruptcy.

"Y" PLAYS LAST GAME TONIGHT

The following men have been seen and have absolutely agreed to be present for the game: Harold Johnson, Watson Wheeler, W. S. Mackin, Arthur Jones, Arthur Mackin, Roy Markle, John Bott, Robert Meeker, Parker Jordan. This game might be one of special interest and the Y. M. C. A. has made every effort possible to see that each man who originally signed up as a player in this league makes good his promise to support the team. As this is the last game for the season for the "A," a good attendance is anticipated.

COX TO KEEP UP ACCUSATIONS

Country to Hear of Sin of Republican. In Every Speech of Democratic Candidate Right Up to November.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Columbus, O., Sept.—Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, has determined upon a definite plan of political strategy, it was learned today, and during his swing to the Pacific coast and back which begins Thursday night, will adhere to it without variation.
"Keep the enemy always on the defensive," is the governor's plan of campaign, briefly summed up.
"In every speech I make from now until November," the governor said, "I shall continue hammering away at them. My revelations have not yet even started and I shall have more than enough material to carry me through the campaign."
When the "slush fund" charges have been elaborated upon to the governor's satisfaction, the attack will be continued and new efforts will be made to show that the "senatorial oligarchy" in delaying ratification of the treaty, is responsible for chaotic conditions in Europe, with the attendant "menace of bolshevism" and when this has been thoroughly aired the governor will attempt to prove that Republicans leaders, by their attitude on international affairs, "have deliberately stirred up racial discord" against the United States.
Governor Cox expects soon to receive complete reports from the survey he instigated several weeks ago of circumstances surrounding the laying off of large numbers of men in industrial centers. At least two great manufacturing corporations are on his list, as well as several railway systems. When this data is ready, the governor will press charges that an attempt is being made to influence voters by an "artificially created" hard times.
Except for a brief address to the Democratic women state committee, which meet here today to organize, Governor Cox expected to spend the greater part of the day in clearing up routine work in preparation for his western trip.
Tomorrow he will address the farm organizations here and will leave at 11 p. m. for Lansing, Mich., where he will speak on September 3.

POLE TERMS ASK MORE TERRITORY

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Warsaw, Aug. 31, via London, Sept. 1.—Poland's new peace terms call for a new eastern frontier east of the line drawn by Earl Curzon, the British foreign secretary, which would give the Poles additional territory.
The other conditions which will be presented to Soviet Russia's delegates were outlined today as follows:
1.—No disarmament until all of Europe disarms.
2.—Self determination for the small states bordering Poland and Russia.
3.—No indemnity nor reparations by either Poland or Russia.
4.—Restoration to Poland of the property removed under the old Czarist regime in Russia.
5.—Russia to be permitted to trade with Germany over the Grajewo branch of the Brest-Litovsk railway with the Poles exercising the strictest supervision to see that no munitions are carried.

TRUSTEE'S ACCOUNTS

In Cornell Estate Approved By Judge Fowler.
The judicial accounting of Horace G. Young, as trustee under the will of Thomas Cornell, deceased, late of the City of Kingston, for the period between January 1, 1919, and December 1, 1919, was had before Judge Joseph M. Fowler acting as surrogate this morning. The trustee's accounts were approved and passed and a decree of approval was entered. Judge Clearwater appeared for the trustee. The reason the accounting was held before Judge Fowler is that Surrogate Gill was disqualified being he is related within the sixth degree to some of the legatees under the will.

Apostle-Spoons

"Apostle-spoons," called also "goose-spoons," were gilt spoons given by sponsors, or "goose," to a child at its christening. They were so called because each spoon had a figure of an apostle on the handle.

Campaign Emblem

So far as can be learned, the first emblem was a finger ring of copper. This was worn by the adherents of John Quincy Adams in 1824 when he ran for president, and was inscribed "John Quincy Adams, 1825."

A WALL STREET EVICTION CASE

A jury was drawn this morning to hear the evidence in the eviction case brought by Henry C. Reynolds against Robert B. Batkin & Brother and the case set down for trial Tuesday evening before Judge Schirer in city court. Mr. Reynolds is represented by Attorney V. E. Van Wageningen, while the defendants are represented by Attorney Frank W. Brooks.

The case came up for trial this morning at which time Mr. Brooks asked for a jury trial. According to the papers filed by Mr. Reynolds he is the owner of the building at No. 304 1/2 Wall street. In February of 1918 he leased the building to the firm of E. S. Craft & Son for a term of three years from May 1, 1918, with the right to pass and repass through the cellar to the coal vault under the sidewalk.
That thereafter Craft & son sublet the building to Batkin & Brother for a period of two months beginning June 15, 1920, and that they took possession. Later Craft & Son assigned all right and interest in the lease to Mr. Reynolds, who is now owner of premises and also the lease, and that Batkin & Brother hold possession without the permission of Craft & Son or Mr. Reynolds.
Mr. Reynolds is bringing the action to obtain possession of the premises and evict Batkin & Brother.

WOMAN ACCUSED OF ABANDONMENT

Mrs. Frances Cisco Arrested on Charge of Abandoning Child Found in Glasgow.

Mrs. Frances Cisco of Glasgow was brought to jail early Tuesday evening by State Troopers Sager and King, having been committed by Police Justice Childsater of Saugerties to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of abandonment.
Mrs. Cisco and her husband separated some time ago. Mrs. Cisco continued to live at Glasgow and became housekeeper for James Morrell. During the month of July she went away from home and was gone for several weeks. On July 28 an infant was found on the porch of a family named Svenson residing at Glasgow and was taken in charge by Miss Martha Davis, county agent for dependent children, who placed the child at the Gray House Farm on the Flatbush road near Glasgow.
The case was investigated by Miss Davis and also by District Attorney Traver with the result that a warrant was sworn out for Mrs. Cisco charging her with abandonment. She was arrested by the state troopers Tuesday afternoon and her arraignment and commitment to jail followed.

"SUFFS" CALM AS HOUSE RESCINDS

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Sept. 1.—Suffrage for women became a matter of legal controversy today, following the action of the Tennessee house in rescinding the ratification of the suffrage amendment.

Officials of the state department, however, were of the opinion that the department is not concerned in the situation and that the proclamation of the amendment will stand until the certification of ratification by the governor of Tennessee is rescinded.

A party of young people from Kerhonkson spent Sunday at their summer cottage here.

The Ellenville fair was well attended by residents from this locality the past week.

Mrs. James Quick is not very well and is attended by Dr. Fuller.

A large number from here were in attendance at the Samosville picnic on Thursday last and we wish to extend much credit to the leaders of the Sunday School for the success in which the picnic was carried out especially the many beautiful victrola selections.

The service held in the church during the afternoon was also appreciated. The pastor brother, the Rev. Mr. Thompson of New York city, delivered the address and the hymns familiar to all were sung.

RACES CLOSE IN BOTH LEAGUES

By Telegraph to The Freeman. New York, Sept. 1.—Baseball in the major leagues today entered the last month of the 1932 campaign. Seasons in each league end on October 3 but approximately thirty days of play are left.

No gap has been offered for any budding leader in either organization in the American League exactly ten points separate the first three teams—Chicago, Cleveland and New York. In the order named. In the National League Brooklyn tops the league by three points, the Dodgers having slipped ahead while the Reds were losing.

Cleveland, with Speaker back in good form, has been playing better ball than either the Yankees or the White Sox in the last few days and are gradually making up lost ground.

HEINNAN TELLS OF MISKE'S PUNCH

By Telegraph to The Freeman. Benton Harbor, Mich., Sept. 1.—And now, ladies and gentlemen, Bill Tate and William Heinnan, sparring partners par excellence, step into the spot light and exude solemn words concerning their respective battle bosses.

"I never was more confident of anything than that Billy Miske will knock out Jack Dempsey Labor Day," asserted Heinnan, who as may be presumed, draws his pay from the Miske exchequer.

"Miske hits harder than Willard and faster than Jack Johnson. He startled me by his speed—and fairly amazed me by his punching power. There's a snap to Miske's punching that Johnson lacked and Willard never knew. Anyway, Miske is hitting faster than any man I ever saw in action and he's getting his 132 pounds into every drive for the jaw. I figure one of those drives is going to drop Dempsey for the long, long count."

In rebuttal are some words from "Old Reliable" Bill Tate, the giant negro who trains with Dempsey.

"This boy Dempsey is ringing all them there bells he used to ring in Toledo when he hit—and a few more too," asserted Bill.

"I always thought that boy reached the top of his punching power just before he fought that there Willard, but I made a mistake. This boy is hitting harder than he ever did."

"Will Jack win on Labor Day? Huh? huh? Well in Toledo I bet my pay on Jack to beat Willard and in this fight—if I could find somebody to bet with—I'd bet all the money that I can earn in the next ten or fifteen years."

Best Authority for Phrase. Would-be purists in language often criticize the South for the expression "you all," but the South has the highest authority on earth for its use. Paul, in his epistle to the Philippians, wrote "you all," and no higher authority than the Bible need be looked for. Paul knew full well the strength and force of "you all."—Manufacturers Record.

LEIBHARDT HEIGHTS.

Leibhardt Heights, Aug. 31—Mrs. Roy Terwilliger of Newburgh spent a few days recently with her sisters the Misses Hoernbeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crissey of Kingston were guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Quick, last week.

Norman and Mouton DeWitt spent Sunday with their grandparents at Palentown.

A party of young people from Kennebec spent Sunday at their summer cottage here.

The Ellenville fair was well attended by residents from this locality the past week.

Mrs. James Quick is not very well and is attended by Dr. Fuller.

A large number from here were in attendance at the Samsenville picnic on Thursday last and we wish to extend much credit to the leaders of the Sunday School for the success in which the picnic was carried out especially the many beautiful victrola selections.

The services held in the church during the afternoon were also appreciated. The pastor brother, the Rev. Mr. Thompson of New York city, delivered the address and the hymns familiar to all were sung.

Sometimes It Does.

TO ENJOY YOUR VACATION

Your vacation glasses must be comfortable. You cannot get an "eye-ful" of nature's charms—her majestic mountains, mirror-like lakes, and tangled forests—unless your sight is clear and unimpaired. Let us provide for that before you leave town.

RACES CLOSE IN BOTH LEAGUES

By Telegraph to The Freeman, New York, Sept. 1.—Baseball in the major leagues today entered the last month of the 1920 campaign. Seasons in each league end on October 3 but approximately thirty days of play are left.

No cap has been offered for any budding leader in either organization. In the American League exactly ten points separate the first three teams—Chicago, Cleveland and New York, in the order named. In the National League Brooklyn tops the league by three points, the Dodgers having slipped ahead while the Reds were loped.

HEINMAN TELLS OF MISKE'S PUNCH

By Telegraph to The Freeman, Boston Harbor, Mich., Sept. 1.—And now, ladies and gentlemen, Bill Tate and William Heinman, sparring partners par excellence, step into the spot light and exude solemn words concerning their respective lactic bosses.

"I never was more confident of anything than that Billy Miske will knock out Jack Dempsey Labor Day," asserted Heinman, who as may be presumed, draws his pay from the Miske exchequer.

"Miske hits harder than Willard and faster than Jack Johnson. He startled me by his speed—and fairly amazed me by his punching power. There's a snap to Miske's punching that Johnson lacked and Willard never knew. Anyway, Miske is hitting faster than any man I ever saw in action and he's getting his 192 pounds into every drive for the jaw. I figure one of those drives is going to drop Dempsey for the long, long count."

In rebuttal are some words from "Old Reliable" Bill Tate, the giant negro who trains with Dempsey. "This boy Dempsey is ringing all them there bells he used to ring in Toledo when he hit—and a few more too," asserted Bill.

"I always thought that boy reached the top of his punching power just before he fought that there Willard, but I made a mistake. This boy is hitting harder than he ever did."

"Will Jack win on Labor Day? Huh! huh? Well in Toledo I bet my pay on Jack to beat Willard and in this fight—if I could find somebody to bet with—I'd bet all the money that I can earn in the next ten or fifteen years."
